

Spis treści / Contents

Introduction	3
Hélène Mainet
The paradoxical place of small towns in sustainable development policies. What is beyond the images of “places where the living is easy”?	5
Gábor Pirisi, András Trócsányi, Bernadett Makkai
Between shrinking and blooming: the crossroad of small towns’ urbanisation in Hungary	12
Manfred Kühn
Small towns in peripheral regions of Germany	29
Agnieszka Kwiatek-Sołtys
Population changes as litmus paper of the socio-economic development level of small towns in Poland	39
Bartosz Bartosiewicz
Influence range of towns in the light of economic linkages – an example of small and medium-sized towns in the Lodz voivodeship	54
Krzysztof Wiedermann
The role of industry in the labour market of small towns	67
Barbara Konecka-Szydłowska, Barbara Maćkiewicz
Endogenous capital of small towns in the Poznań agglomeration	80
Mariola Tracz
Development of educational services in small towns of the Małopolskie and Podkarpackie voivodeships	96
Katarzyna Kulczyńska
Models of service systems in the split towns of the Polish-German and Polish-Czech borderlands	107
Agnieszka Brzosko-Sermak, Monika Płaziak
Conditions of divided towns development – an example of Guben and Gubin	123
Antonín Vaishar
Kuřim – the largest small town in the South-Moravian Region (Czechia)	135